

Make a Citation for an Encyclopedia Article, Print Version

Example:

Minch, Edwin W. "Spiders." The World Book Encyclopedia.
2006 ed. Vol. 17. Print.

1.

_____ , _____ .

Author's last name

first name

“ _____ ”

Title of the Article

_____ . _____ ed.

Title of the Encyclopedia (should be underlined)

Year of the edition on spine or title page.

_____ . Print.

Volume number and/or letters found on the spine

2.

Now use the information you filled in above to write out the citation below. Use the example and the box at the top for help.

_____

_____

_____

_____ . Print.

- =====
 || Tips ||
 || 1. Follow punctuation exactly as given in the example. ||
 || 2. Usually the edition year is found on the encyclopedia spine or cover. ||
 || 3. Sometimes the author of an encyclopedia article is found at the end of the article text. If there is none given, then ||
 || leave the information blank. ||
 =====