

ECO GAMES

"It's okay to be an imperfect environmentalist. It's better to do something than to do nothing. You do not have to do ALL of the things!"

Connections with Nature

- Find the dogwood trees on campus, reflect on its' changes throughout the year
- Find the herb garden, discover what is grown there
- Mindful walk through the wooded area behind our school
- Globe at Night - look for light pollution as a global community. Look for Leo.
- Create artwork out of natural materials (examples: leaves, sticks, pebbles, etc.).

Faculty/Staff Addition

- Recipe Swap (email sent had details)*
- Check out information in the faculty lounge on eco-friendly lawns and pollinator gardens.*

Increasing Awareness

- Environmentally themed Netflix/youtube videos, poetry, websites, activism resources, & more
- Climate and Environmental Justice
- Find posters around the school that share an environmental message - reflect on this message during MFW
- Visit 213 for a sneak peak at what will be grown in the MFS garden
- Check out the library collections highlighting environmental topics

- Turn your computer off every night for all of Earth Week (or longer)*
- Carpool with a coworker at least once this month*

Sharing Messages

- Write nature inspired poetry
- Contribute to our interactive tree mural, in Stokes
- Record a 30-60 second PSA with an environmentally themed message - some may be chosen to share through various MFS web platforms and our MFW assembly
- Write a message to a company or lawmakers - Click here for guidance
- Design the opening page for Lubicky's Rewrite Books ©, submit to his mailbox
- Choose a stairwell and write a message to be viewed as people walk up the steps (in between stairs)
